

July

Beginners ride Sunday, July 14 9:00 a.m. Meet at Westover Park, Harrisonbur (large parking lot by pool). This will be a "D" paced ride (8-10 mph) for the beginner or otherwise not-so-fast rider. We'll ride about 10 miles - no one will be left behind. RIDE LEADER: Art Fovargue (433-9247)

BIKE AID

Again this summer, a group of bicyclists will be passing through Harrisonburg on their cross country trek called Bike Aid to raise money for the Overseas Development Network. Last year a number of us put up one or two cyclists for the night after a pot luck picnic. It was a rewarding experience. We'll probably do it similarly this year and homes are needed for them to stay at. They'll arrive Sat, Aug 17. Call Art Fovargue or Pete Mahoney () if you can help. More details to follow. Anyone want to lead a ride to head out to greet them?

Adopt-A-Highway Report:

Thanks trash collectors!! Your help was greatly appreciated.

June 12 - one mile section completed - 11 bags of trash collected.

June 19 - mile two section completed - 11 bags of trash collected.

Valley Wellness Center 2nd Annual Triathlon. Sunday, September 15. Volunteers are needed. Volunteers will receive a t-shirt and are welcome to free refreshments afterwards. Let's show our support. Contact Marcia (432-0419) or Deb Rigby (434-6224).

JUNE Meeting Minutes

Prior to the meeting, five of us (Marcia, Frank, Greg, Michelle, and Art) went on a fun 11 mile spin through Dayton and Belmont Estates.

At some time after 7:00 PM (Shelter #1, Hillandale Park, June 10, 1991) during various discussions, it was assumed that the meeting was officially open: Jack Foster presiding.

Marcia Lamphier told about plans for the "Bike Virginia" snack stop planned for Todd Lake on June 23. After making her monthly request for volunteers, Marcia educated us on the latest study of optimized banana consumption.

Neups recounted his adventures at the latest GEAR (Great Eastern Rally) in Williamsburg on June 7-9.

Marcia AGAIN called for volunteers to help with the Refuse pickups along our "Adopt-A-Highway" stretch of Rt 753 scheduled for June 19 and 19.

Various upcoming tours were discussed including Marcia's morning ride on June 30. She said it would be a surprise. (What, no volunteers needed?)

Neups announced that GEAR next year will be in Canton, NY (Even though I wrote down Canton, OH).

Jack mentioned that trail maintenance/construction is taking place along the Boone Run Trail in Massanutten. Anyone interested in helping should call him.

Marcia said there is $897.37 in the treasury (This was the Treasurer's report)

Neups handed out a cue sheet for one of his rides as an example of a possible format for a ride book.

Marcia reported on the MS Tour (June 8&9). The secretary was to include her report in these minutes, however he only remembers that she rode 159 miles and raised somewhere between $430 and $124,000. Thanks to Scott and Dave for helping sag.

The meeting dispersed about 8:15. Attendance: 9 members.

HISTORICAL NOTE: Attendees other than Marcia, Neups, & Jack did participate, but nobody said anything memorable enough to include in these minutes. Especially Art's mumbling about not knowing where his anniversary is....

Bike Virginia - June 23 - Todd Lake Rest Stop

A gigantic "thank you" goes to all my Todd Lake - Bike Virginia - volunteers. The pouring rain may have dampened some cyclists spirits Sunday morning, however, we eagerly served between 60 and 70 enthusiastic cyclists. Our being there made a big difference. There were rave reviews on the Todd Lake Rest Stop at Bike Va. Headquarters in Bridgewater. The bagels (thanks to Ed and Mr. J's), gatorade, and bananas were greatly appreciated. Marcia

Greg Gum (official rest stop vehicle and tarp assembly)
Michelle Gum (official bagel slicer)
Jack Foster (in charge of entertainment/frisbee in the rain)
Ed Strothers (bagels from Mr. J's)
Frank Hill (official iceman)
Randy Swecker (rain poncho distribution)
Brent McNitt (mechanical support)
Mike "Neups" Neupauer (knew the most participants and forgot the punchline)
